

Name: _____

Canada Goes to War and New Types of Fighting

Review: There were four M.A.I.N causes of World War One: Militarism, Alliances, Imperialism, and Nationalism. These causes escalated tensions in Europe and when Archduke Franz Ferdinand (the leader of Austria-Hungary) was assassinated by a member of the Black Hand many European countries found themselves involved in what would become World War One

Canada Goes to War

In 1914 Canadian _____ policy was controlled by _____

- When Britain declared war on _____ (August 4, 1914),
Canada was _____ at war

Wilfrid Laurier (Liberal) and Prime Minister _____

(Conservative) both _____ the war

- Canada offered 25,000 troops but more than _____ volunteers signed up within a month

At this time _____ was not a province

- Some Newfoundlanders joined the _____ forces
- Some formed the _____

Canadians went to war for _____ main reasons

Canada's Minister of _____ was _____

- In charge of Canada's _____ industry

The _____ was a Canadian made weapon, BUT it _____ constantly _____ in Quebec was build to _____ Canadian troops

Canada's armed forces were called the _____ _____ (CEF)

- At first soldiers were _____ into British troops
- Before long Canadians fought together under the command of

New Types of Fighting

The _____ Plan was Germany's attempt to avoid a two front war

- Believed it would take _____ time to mobilize
- Believed _____ would remain neutral

The Schlieffen Plan was stopped at the _____ in September

- Each side dug _____ and _____ ensued

Between the trenches was _____

- Full of _____, _____, and _____

Between Germany and France was called the _____ Life in the _____ was _____ and _____

- There were lots of _____ and _____ and many men developed _____

In order to attack, soldiers had to _____ unprotected

New _____ changed the ways wars were fought →

_____, _____, and _____

- Many generals ignored technology and engaged instead in _____ which were based on grinding down (exhausting) the enemy's manpower before yours were exhausted

Nations became engaged in _____ as they threw all their efforts into winning the war